What a day!

An Endangered Species

Football Fans

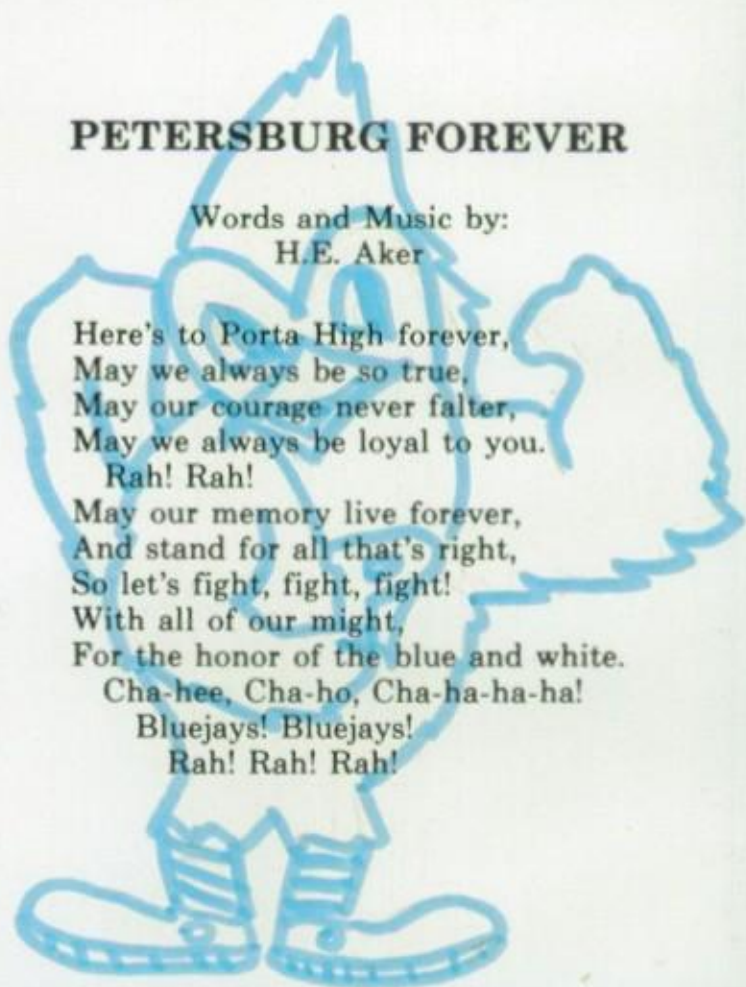

Aren't we lovable?

PETERSBURG FOREVER

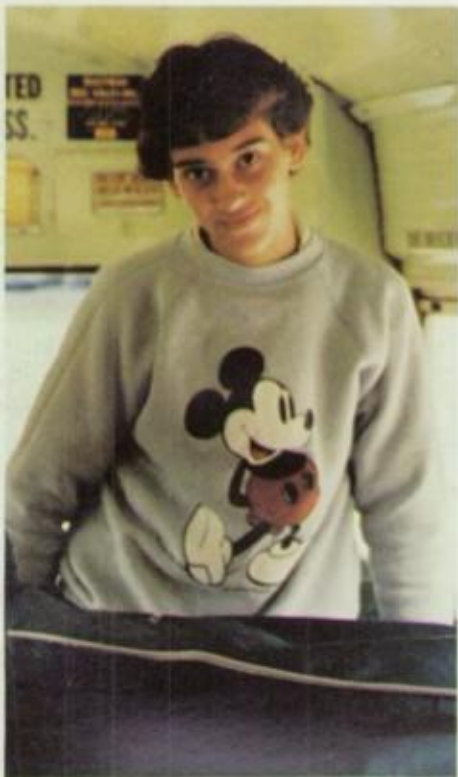

Words and Music by:
H.E. Aker

Here's to Porta High forever,
May we always be so true,
May our courage never falter,
May we always be loyal to you.
Rah! Rah!

May our memory live forever,
And stand for all that's right,
So let's fight, fight, fight!
With all of our might,
For the honor of the blue and white.
Cha-hee, Cha-ho, Cha-ha-ha-ha!
Bluejays! Bluejays!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

The ferocious football team is at it again.

The school year began for the first time in many years on September 2. The late start was due to the high temperature and a need to save money on the electricity bill. For the first two weeks, the school day lasted until 1:50 in the afternoon.

Although the school day was short, sports were in full swing with the volleyball, golf, cross-country, and football teams participating in a full schedule of competition.

Exciting game?

Knock it off.

Ready for the big race?

Here it comes.

We're happy!

Cheerleaders are funny people.

All during the first four weeks of school, the Student Council was working frantically to put together the Homecoming Dance and other activities.

The Homecoming Dance was held in the commons on Saturday evening, October 1, 1983. The band (Stranger) was enjoyed by all.

The Cheerleaders conducted Spirit Week. The week began with the Juniors winning Sheet Day and the Freshmen winning Hat Day on Monday. Students searched their closets for their worst clothes to wear on Tuesday for Slob Day. The Seniors turned out in full force for this day as they came out with a victory. A new event was added on Wednesday: Slave Day. Joe Sponsler auctioned off class officers and Student Council members. The slaves had to labor for their masters on Thursday. Tuesday and Wednesday were also Big Bucks Days to help the Cheerleaders raise money for the feed for the football players held after their practice on Friday. Friday was Blue and White Day as well as the Pep Assembly. The annual Tug o' War between the classes was won by the Seniors. After a heated yell-for-all, the Juniors won the Spirit Stick. Although the Seniors suffered many losses, they ended up winning Spirit Week.

Nineteen Hundred Eighty-Four

Dedicated to the Seniors

Another year goes passing by Another Prom is here
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others, brings a tear
For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb is just begun.
We're very glad to know you
We'll miss you when you've gone
And to the Class of '84
We dedicate our Prom.

Once again, the school year comes to a close, and the memories are captured in the 1984 yearbook. At this time, I would like to give a special thanks to the sales personnel, the patrons, the senior class, and the senior sponsors. Without these people, PORTA would be unable to have a quality yearbook.

Thanks again for your support.

As this yearbook full of "Memories" draws to a close, I would like to thank the following people: Mrs. Ruthelma Wankel, Mr. Gene Hayes, Mrs. Pam Armbrust, Jane Cutright and The Petersburg Observer, George McNeal, Maureen and Ercell, my parents, the yearbook staff, the sales staff, the faculty and administration, and anyone else who contributed in any way.

Thanks so much.

hizard,

Well, now what should I say. You're a great friend & our friendship means a lot to me. We've had a lot of great times: R.S. Parties, sleep-overs, evenings with Sharon & down drinking "Pepsi" & so on the list is endless. I don't see how we could stand B-ball all those years. Talk about torture! For that matter, I don't see how we stand each other, but we do & that's what counts.
It seems like you're always there when I need you &
you always listen to my problems & occasional happy thoughts. You know I'll always be there for you.
I guess we'll always be "Partners in Crime" through both thick & thin. If we've stood each other all of this time we can through anything. I really can't think of anything else to say. You know everything already.
I guess that says a lot. I feel bad because by some miracle you were able to get a whole page in mine. Oh well,
I write smaller. So we're probably about even.

Good Luck with B.C. but I know
you don't need it.

Best of Friends Always,

you're a great friend. We'll have to go out + party sometime! (remember the time Chris + me got wasted at your house!) Stay crazy!

Love ya,
Dawn

Liz,

What am I going to do with you, you kinky person. Thanks for all the things you did for me Sat. night. Especially taking me to cop a squat in the cornfield and by the Church. That was real nice of you. I cant mention the other thing you did for me. Too bad I didnt need it!!! Too bad you didnt need it!!! Now dont party too much but just enough to have a blast. Dont get too crazy with Brian. He may not be able to handle all the kinky tortures you might think up for him. now dont drink too much of Grampa's medicine or anything else either. Its not good for you! I really think you need to behave yourself Liz. spending all night in a car with Brian and not doing anything but getting sick! Shame on you Liz!! Love ya Butt Butt,

Liz, (~~trond~~) Ha, Ha!

You're really a great person and you work hard at everything you do. For example's bands, killing your knees, and calling me worthless (at least you called me a human being!). Remember all the fun we've had - going on road trips & torturing ourselves in basketball (fun city), and goofin' off in consumer ed. I'm looking forward to showin' you up in softball - Ha, ha!

Boy, I can just see your face as you read this! I see your face with the expression "I'm gonna kill you, Gum!" Seriously, you're a super nice friend, a great trombone player, and I hope you never change - you're great the way you are. Good luck in everything you do in your following years at PORTA high and there on after.

p.s. - Why do you always cover your face when I walk by? ← Just joking Always remember
how the Polish person hurt
his head - the toilet lid fell on him!
while washing
his face
See ya around,
Gummer.

Will bud how's it going? Has there been any more quagging saying on you can. you're gonna have to find out who put those on there and kick there and (just kidding, you'd trust my car if you kicked it). Good luck in the future with Brian. Party on the weekend cause that's what they are for. Stay crazy and sweet.

by Trouble,
have had a great time
over the last five or six months.
I hope you have to. I'm looking forward to homecoming. It will give me the excuse to stay out all night and set totally blest, too.
I hope it turns out as much fun as last year's musical and prom, but Hopefully not as much trouble if you know what I mean. I really don't usually like to write a whole lot in yearbooks, but I thought I would make an exception just this once.
Well, I've ran out of things to say, so...

Friends, (Fry + Brian

At! At! At! What's up to? Kinky sex? Don't forget all the fun times we have had. Don't forget the night in the parking lot when you can get covered with great sayings. Don't forget the wild times at the basketball games. Don't go saying to much sex, it might ruin you. Only I can have a lot of sex.

~~when you going on these wild dates, don't do~~ anything I wouldn't do. Even though there's not much sex. Only kidding! You have been a really good friend. Let's hope you stay that way.

Affed fuck with Brian C. (Even though you won't need it.)

Bye!

Friends!

Forever!
